GUIDELINES

FOR ALL PARTICIPANTS

Each artist may submit a maximum of three pieces of Original Canadian artwork done without assistance. (Any artwork deemed to be a copy of another artist's work or done with the assistance of an instructor will be removed).

The Jury's decision is final.

A contract must be filled out and signed when artwork is delivered to the GAC.

The artist, by submission, grants the GAC the right to photograph works for publicity, website, educational, reference and website purposes.

All work must be ready for exhibition. Do not submit work that is not dry. Damage resulting from such work will be the financial responsibility of the artist. For this exhibition artwork need not be wired for hanging.

All artwork must be labeled on back left bottom corner as follows: artist name, title of work, medium, date work was completed, selling price. Students (14 to 17 years of age) please add name of school, and your age (as of Sept. 1st, 2010). **Please use the labels on the back of this brochure.*

Transportation & Insurance: all shipping arrangements and associated costs are the responsibility of the exhibiting artist. The artist is responsible for insuring their work under their own insurance plan while it is at the GAC as well as during transport to and from the GAC.

Awards: Work will be judged according to originality and creativity and awards will be presented at the official Vernissage / Reception & Awards on Sun. Oct. 17 (1-3pm).

No entry may be removed from the exhibition until the exhibit has closed November 21, 2010. Artworks may be picked up at the end of the exhibition between 3 and 3:45 pm or during GAC hours after November 21.
